REPORTS FROM LOCAL BRANCHES

PRINCETON.—A Local Branch has been organized, the officers elected being: E. G. Conklin, chairman; and H. C. Warren, secretary.

“Our initial membership, counting those whose election is now pending, is 99. It was resolved to hold regular monthly meetings throughout the year, and to take up first for discussion Methods of Appointment and Promotion. Professor Kemmerer made an interesting report of the activities of Committee P, urging all university and college teachers against accepting insurance with the Teachers’ Annuity and Insurance Association until that Association should modify its organization and the terms of its policies in accordance with the demands of our Association. The Princeton Branch of the Association is squarely behind Chairman Stone and Committee P in the stand which they have taken in this matter.”
